Description

St Mawes Castle Cornwall up there on the hill, strong powerful steeped in history. Looking out over the sea still keeping guard after all these years. watercolour on paper Perter Stopper Born in Linz, Austria. Peter is an artist in acrylics, pastel and watercolour, many of his paintings are a combination of all of these often with the addition of gold leaf. His paintings positively glow with colour and vibrancy making them irresistible. He paints landscapes buildings and flowers in abstract form working with asymmetric elements that experiment with surface and structures. Stopper feels painting is a continuous process of consciousness and precision, which unites and increases the skills and abilities of creativity, craftsmanship, flexibility and coordination.
