Description

Back to Back great detail just look at the fingers and toes it would be a great talking point in your home. South West England Sally Dunham's style is lively and distinctive, no molds or interior supports are used each piece is therefore unique. She finds her inspiration from observing the world around her. This collection of work called "A moment with Mister Herbert" on his many humorous adventures is fun and light-hearted. Sally studied at Wolverhampton University where she obtained her degree in a range of techniques.
