Description

We all know about graffiti !! but starting off on pebbles well thats another game!! oil on canvas board There is great humour in Thomas's work, he can see the funny side of almost any situation. The theatre has been a strong influence in his paintings as he spent many years being involved with design and scenery before becoming a full time artist His pallet is traditional, both in the mixing of his colours and the application of his paint to the canvas, often using a pallet knife with the width and edge to extenuate perspective.
