Description

This truly atmospheric painting draws you in feeling the quiet moments while walking the coast that this artist felt when visiting Cornwall. Watercolour on paper Peter Stopper Born in Linz, Austria. Peter is an artist in acrylics, pastel and watercolour, many of his paintings are a combination of all of these often with the addition of gold leaf. His paintings positively glow with colour and vibrancy making them irresistible. He paints landscapes buildings and flowers in abstract form working with asymmetric elements that experiment with surface and structures. Stopper feels painting is a continuous process of consciousness and precision, which unites and increases the skills and abilities of creativity, craftsmanship, flexibility and coordination.
