Description

This lovely young woman, daydreaming maybe on the beach Bronze resin limited edition The main focus of Anna's work is human behaviour within society. Expressed through the use of the figure, She seeks to capture intimate moments of people in their own worlds, unaware of an onlooker. In doing so, encouraging the viewer to empathise with the work Through studying Figurative Sculpture, her passion for the figure was established. With traditional teaching in modelling and drawing from life and portraiture accompanied by Anatomy lectures, Anna gained a broad foundation of skills. Using long-established methods of mould making. Anna Rothwell creates her work in a variety of materials, including bronze, resin and ceramics.
